

Selection Criteria

Essential	Desirable
A degree awarded by a UK university or the CNAAB or other institution empowered to make such awards, or recognised equivalent at a level of 2.2 or above.	Good Honours Degree
GCSE Grade C or above in Maths and English (or equivalent)
GCSE Grade C or above in Science (or equivalent)
Advanced study to A level or equivalent	A level in primary curriculum subject
Previous education which provides the necessary foundation for work as a teacher in the phases/subject to be taught	GCSE or equivalent in a range of national curriculum subjects
Ability to communicate clearly and in spoken and written standard English	Well structured writing
Evidence of relevant experience with children. The ability to interact with children and teaching staff.	Experience of working with children in an educational context.
Evidence of commitment to teaching as a career	Interest in or experience of the management of emotional and behavioural difficulties in mainstream settings.
Relevant interests and strengths	Interests that would enhance the whole curriculum
Personal, intellectual and presentational qualities suitable for teaching
Commitment to the course	Positive choice of SCITT
Working knowledge of basic IT and willingness to achieve further proficiency in own time	Interests in IT in the classroom
Ability to meet the Secretary of State's requirements for physical and mental fitness to teach (current DFE Circular)
Evidence of ability to organise
No conviction which might prevent employment as a teacher
	Resident in the local area
	Own transport"